Authority

The Board of School Directors (“Board”) of Springfield School District (“District”) believes that the education of children is a joint responsibility, one it shares with the parents/guardians of the school community. To ensure that the best interests of the child are served in this process, a strong program of communications between home and school must be maintained.[1]

The Board feels that it is the parents/guardians who have the ultimate responsibility for their children’s in-school behavior.

The Superintendent will develop and publish administrative guidelines which are consistent with this policy.
