

SPRINGFIELD SCHOOL DISTRICT

Book	Policy Manual
Section	700 Property
Title	Safety and Security
Number	709
Status	Active
Adopted	February 28, 2019

The Springfield School Board (The Board) is responsible for the safety and security of all individuals and groups utilizing District property and buildings (Facilities).

The Board designates the Superintendent or his/her designee to obtain and employ the necessary resources required to maintain this safety and security. Security forces shall include but are not limited to a security director or officer and any additional forces (Security Forces) needed as deemed appropriate by the Superintendent or his/her designee. Board approval shall be required where personnel or large expenditures are required to implement this directive.

Security Forces shall be certified by the Commonwealth to employ tools deemed appropriate to support their function including but not limited to firearms, scanners, inspection wands, electronic tracking devices, and any Commonwealth-approved devices to protect the safety of individuals or groups on school district property.

Where appropriate, the District may share information regarding safety infractions with but not limited to law enforcement, support agencies, such as the Intermediate Unit, other educational institutions and/or any appropriate agency.
