Greetings future Springfield High School (SHS) 9th grade parents:

The teachers, staff, and administrators at SHS would like to extend a warm welcome to both you and your future 9th graders. As a dedicated academic team, we take great pride in working collaboratively to help guide your teen through the transition from middle school to high school. The teachers at SHS are excited to help each student get the most out of his/her high school experience. The first step in this process is to ensure all students remain “intellectually active” over the summer.

Students enrolled in Honors Language Arts 9 are required to read 2 books: 1 book must be chosen from the list provided on the chart below, and the other can be any book of choice. Students are required to complete 10-12 Double Entry Journals for each book.

Students will be given a grade for the Double Entry Journals. They must submit their completed Double Entry Journals to their 9th grade LA teacher on the FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL IN SEPTEMBER.

9th Grade Language Arts Honors Summer Reading Choice List

Choose one book from the following titles:

1. Falling Leaves: The Memoir of Unwanted Chinese Daughter by Adeline Yen Mah

Born in 1937 in a port city a thousand miles north of Shanghai, Adeline Yen Mah was the youngest child of an affluent Chinese family who enjoyed rare privileges during a time of political and cultural upheaval. But wealth and position could not shield Adeline from a childhood of appalling emotional abuse at the hands of a cruel and manipulative Eurasian stepmother. Determined to survive through her enduring faith in family unity, Adeline struggled for independence as she moved from Hong Kong to England and eventually to the United States to become a physician and writer.

2. Importance of Being Earnest by Oscar Wilde

Here is Oscar Wilde's most brilliant tour de force, a witty and buoyant comedy of manners that has delighted millions in countless productions since its first performance in London's St. James' Theatre on February 14, 1895. The Importance of Being Earnest is celebrated not only for the lighthearted ingenuity of its plot, but for its inspired dialogue, rich with scintillating epigrams still savored by all who enjoy artful conversation.*

3. Frankenstein by Mary Shelley

The epic battle between man and monster reaches its greatest pitch in the famous story of FRANKENSTEIN. In trying to create life, the young student Victor Frankenstein unleashes forces beyond his control, setting into motion a long and tragic chain of events that brings Victor himself to the very brink. How he tries to destroy his creation, as it destroys everything Victor loves, is a powerful story of love, friendship ...and horror.*

Double Entry Journals

What is a Double Entry Journal (DEJ)?

The Double Entry Journal (DEJ) allows students to record their responses to text as they read. In the left-hand column, the student copies quotes from the novel that they find interesting, intriguing, puzzling, or moving in some way. In the right-hand column, the student reacts to the quotation. Students learned about and completed DEJs in all of their Language Arts classes during the school year. Students in Honors LA should complete 10-12 entries per book.

Different Ways to Keep a Double Entry Journal

Left Hand Side	Right Hand Side
Quotes from the text	Visual commentary (drawings, visual analogies, doodles)
Quotes from the text	Written reactions, reflections, commentary, musings (“This bugs, annoys, moves . . . me because . . .”), reflections (“I wonder if. . .”), musings (“Hmmm. . .”), questions (“I wonder why. . .”) with possible answers (“Maybe because . . .”)
Quotes from the text	Connections <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Text to text ➤ Text to self ➤ Text to world
Observations, details revealed by close reading	Significance
What the text says...	Why the text says this...
Questions: “I wonder why...”	Possible answers: “Maybe because...”
Quotes from texts	Questions (Clarifying & Probing)
Quotes from texts	Social Questions (Race, class, gender inequalities)
Quotes from texts	Memories
Quotes from texts	Identifying Literary Terms (a great simile because; this symbol represents)

#1. DEJ on a Novel (Excerpts from the Old Man and the Sea by Ernest Hemingway)

Quotes(original lines or paraphrased lines)	Responses in Relation to the Task (Point out the literary elements used in the story)
“His choice had been to stay in the deep dark water far beyond all snares and traps and treacheries” (4).	The old man seems to talk to the fish as if it were a human being. This personification indicates that nature and animals make their choices too under certain situations.
“But what a great fish he is and what will he bring in the market if the flesh is good. He took the bait like a male and he pulls like a male and his fight has no panic in it” (35).	The old man compares the fish to a male and praises him as if it were one of his companions. He seems to take his tough choice in such a humane manner although he is not certain whether he'll survive this or not.

#2. DEJ on a Novel (Excerpts from the Walden by Henry David Thoreau)

Quotations	Reflections
“Say what you have to say, not what you ought. Any truth is better than make-believe” (P.#).	Sometimes it is difficult to tell the truth because you don't want to hurt a person's feelings or because it's hard for you to admit something. It was hard for me to tell my dad that I didn't want to go to the same college he did, but I was glad that I told him afterwards.

#3. DEJ on a Novel (Excerpts from The Woman Warrior by Maxine Hong Kingston)

Quotations	Reflections
“You can't. It's too late. You've sold your apartment. See here. We know his address. He's living in Los Angeles with his second wife, and they have three children. Claim your rights. Those are your children. He's got two sons. You have two sons. You take them away from her. You become their mother”(27).	I felt angry and annoyed for the second wife when I read this. Knowing how custody in the United States works, I read these with surprise because they are nothing like our laws. A woman can't just take children from their mother because she had relations with their father. It's just ridiculous to even suggest. It just doesn't make sense. This to me made brave Orchid seem ridiculous. I can't understand her reasoning for wanting her sister to claim another person's children as her own. It just doesn't make sense.

#4. DEJ on a Novel (Excerpts from The Woman Warrior by Maxine Hong Kingston)

Quotations	Reflections
“Any merchant who advertises ‘Honest Scales’ must have been thinking about weighing them” (38).	I was impressed with her mother's business knowledge. This quote also made me realize what I could be missing from my own life. It made it obvious that it is often best to look beyond the perks and gimmicks to find the true reason for why the merchant is selling his/her goods, whether they are processed, hand made, simple, generic, or sophisticated. This makes no difference. This quote teaches one to question things in the business world because people can and will try and take your money and leave you with a bad product. Her mother obviously has a good amount of street smarts to know things like this.
